

UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT HEALTH CENTER SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
RESIDENCY IN CHILD & ADOLESCENT PSYCHIATRY
APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION CRITERIA

1. Eligibility Criteria for Application to the Residency in Child & Adolescent Psychiatry in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Connecticut School of Medicine
 - a. Graduate of U.S. or Canadian medical school accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME) or the American Osteopathic Association (AOA).
 - b. The University of Connecticut Health Center sponsors international candidates on J-1 visas only.
 - c. Graduate of a foreign medical school with:
 - A valid ECFMG certificate or –
 - Completion of Fifth Pathway Program provided by a medical school accredited by the LCME or –
 - A full and unrestricted license to practice Medicine
 - d. Passed USMLE Step 1 and 2 with either completion of Step 3 OR plans to complete before entering the program.
 - e. Prior psychiatry residency training in good standing (without probation) as evidenced by:
 - Completion of an accredited Residency in Psychiatry at a U.S. or Canadian Medical School or –
 - Completion of the PG1, PG2, and PG3 years of an accredited Residency in Psychiatry at a U.S. or Canadian Medical School. May apply to program prior to completion of PG3 year.

2. Selection Criteria to the Residency in Child & Adolescent Psychiatry in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Connecticut School of Medicine
 - a. Selection of residents is based on:
 - Resident applicant qualities of honesty, integrity, professionalism, and desire for training in Child & Adolescent Psychiatry.
 - Satisfactory meeting of eligibility requirements for application to our Program (see above).
 - Information provided in the applicant's application packet, and -
 - Information provided during the applicant's interview with our Program, and -
 - Review of all pertinent applicant information by the Admissions Committee of the Division of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry.

3. If accepted to our Program and choosing to matriculate to the Residency in Child & Adolescent Psychiatry in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Connecticut School of Medicine, you must by July 1 of your year of entry into the program:
 - a. Have a valid state of Connecticut license to practice medicine upon entering the University of Connecticut School of Medicine Residency in Child & Adolescent Psychiatry by July 1 of the year of residency entry.
 - b. Have a valid federal and state of Connecticut DEA number upon entering the University of Connecticut School of Medicine Residency in Child & Adolescent Psychiatry by July 1 of the year of residency entry.

The program does not discriminate with regard to sex, race, age, religion, color, disability or national origin